

JOIN OUR TEAM

FEDERAL-MOGUL MOTORPARTS

We are a long-established global automotive supplier of premium and value-added high quality components to vehicle and transportation manufacturers and the aftermarket.

The key to our success is you becoming part of our

European Graduate Program

This two years leadership development rotational program gives you an exciting chance to start your professional career development and to become an important part of our company's future. We offer opportunities in the following functions: Process Engineering, Quality Engineering, Manufacturing Engineering, Finance, Purchasing, Human Resources, Process Technology, and eBusiness.

Discover your potential

- A dedicated two years leadership training and development program
- An assigned mentor throughout the program
- Opportunities to work at various European Federal-Mogul Motorparts sites
- Responsibility for project charters supporting the company's business objectives
- Being part of a global team and working in a multi-cultural environment
- Developing a management career within the Motorparts organization

Convince us

- Bachelor, master, or predictable grade 's degree in your preferred function
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills in English
- Ability and initiative to solve problems in a team, be proactive and goal-oriented
- Willingness to adapt to new situations
- Valid documentation to be able to work in various European locations
- To join our European Graduate Program in September 2016

Do you have drive, ambition and aspire to be a leader of the future?
We'd like to meet you.
Visit our website to apply in English for this exciting opportunity:

fmmotorparts.com > About us >
Careers > European Graduate Program